

Martin McGoldrick M.Sc. MBA

More than 16 years of university level teaching experience

Experienced in designing learning programmes

Masters and undergraduate level teaching experience in Europe and Asia

Experienced in quality management

Master's degree from College of Aeronautics, Cranfield University

MBA from Caledonian University

Passion for Student-centered teaching

Martin McGoldrick M.Sc. MBA

Address	Modřínová 1390/14, Kobylisy, Praha 8, Czech Republic
Telephone	(+420) 603 20 25 29
Email	quickcheck@post.cz
Place of Birth	Coatbridge, Scotland
Citizenship	British

Teaching Experience

2015 – present                      Prague Business College, Ďáblická 85/67, Praha-Ďáblice

Accredited ATHE Business Instructor, teaching programmes including – Research for Managers, Strategic Planning, Organizational Behaviour, Intercultural Communication, Hospitality Management, and Human Resource Management.

2014 – present                      Global Learning Services, Texas, USA

Principal, and Programme Coordinator for pre-university preparation programmes around Europe.

2014 – present                      Prague Institute, Přemyslská 133/68, Prague 8

Consultant – designing and delivering a range of education programmes.

2013 – present                      Tandem Language School, Polská 1716, Prague 2

English language instructor (Medical English, Business English, English for Engineers, General English) for students in the range A2 – C1.

2012 – 2015                      Victoria University, Avenue de la Gare 2, Neuchatel, Switzerland

Victoria University is a specialist business school with programmes in hospitality management. I represented the University in locations around the globe (including Vietnam, Hong Kong, China) and my role included working to satisfy the requirements of accreditation bodies, particularly Eduqua the Swiss accreditation authority. Additionally, I taught business and management courses in Strategic Management, Organizational Behaviour and Design, and Leadership

2013 – 2015                      Dulles University, 1934 Old Gallows Road, Vienna, VA 22182, United States

As Director of Programs, I coordinated corporate educational programmes around Europe (mostly with financial institutions.)

2012 – 2013                      Vysoká škola ekonomická (VŠE) (Prague School of Economics),
nám. W. Churchilla 4 Prague, Czech Republic

At the School of Economics, I held the post of adjunct lecturer. I delivered English Language classes in Business and Economic English to non-native speakers.

2010 – February 2012      New River Knowledge, 2506 Craigs Store Road, Afton, Virginia, 22920, USA

New River Knowledge was a start-up consulting company based near Charlottesville in the Commonwealth of Virginia, USA. New River Knowledge specialized in post-secondary education. I was engaged with the launch of educational partnerships outside of North America and in programme design.

2004 – September 2013      University of Northern Virginia (Prague Campus) Křižíkova 44, Karlín, Praha 8

At the University of Northern Virginia, I lectured in Team Management, Organizational Theory, Leadership, Strategic Analysis, and Principles of Management. My work at the University of Northern Virginia permitted me to be a visiting lecturer on a number of joint programmes hosted by Chinese universities including Peking University, Qinghuá University, and the Harbin University of Commerce.

2005 – 2009                      City University of Seattle (MBA program with VŠFS), Estonská 500, Praha 10
In this programme, I was a lecturer in High Performance Management, People and Systems in Organizations, and International Management. I also mentored prospective students who required ‘bridge courses’ in economics and business subjects and in English language instruction prior to beginning the programme.

2002 – 2004                      Anglo-American University (Prague) Lázeňská 4, Praha 1
My role at AAU was to connect the university with the business world. I was responsible for engaging other international educational entities in EU-sponsored research into topics ranging from service delivery to novel strategies for family businesses. I also lectured in Strategic Analysis and Knowledge Management.

2001 – 2002                      Palacký University Křížkovského 10, Olomouc, Czech Republic
I worked for the Faculty of Philosophy in the Applied Economics programme, and as the departmental Business Development Officer I was engaged in EU-funded research with partner schools in Germany and England. Additionally, I was a lecturer in Applied Economics and Business.

1999 – 2001                      CMC Graduate School of Business Náměstí 5. května 12, Čelákovice, C.R.
At CMC, initially I was Director of MBA programmes (Calgary) and then took on additional responsibilities including Director of International Programs and teaching English. My role was to design experiential learning programmes, to liaise with partner universities, and to teach English to applicants who required a bridge programme.

Education

1998 – 1999                      Glasgow Caledonian University Cowcaddens Road, Glasgow, Scotland
At the Caledonian Business School (Glasgow Caledonian University) I obtained a Master of Business Administration (with distinction). My dissertation was based on ‘coopatition’ and knowledge management. I earned the award of MBA (with distinction) in 2000.

1988 – 1989                      Cranfield Institute (now Cranfield University) Bedfordshire, England
At Cranfield University College of Aeronautics I obtained a Master of Science degree in Biology and Aeronautics (Bio-Aeronautics). My dissertation was on the topic of the health and safety of equipment operators.

1984 – 1988                      Glasgow College Cowcaddens Road, Glasgow, Scotland
At Glasgow College I obtained a Bachelor’s degree in Applied Medical Microbiology

Additional Skills

Successfully completed a Czech Language summer program at Charles University, Prague.

References